DISBARMENT PROCEEDINGS.

Action to Be Taken against L. G. Grossman, Recently of Burlington.

At the next term of the supreme court there will appear on the Chittenden county calendar of criminal docket proceedings against L. G. Grossman, who for several months past has been a citizen of Burlington, finally leaving the city under cover. His career among the legal fraternity was anything but the best and at one time there was a suit against him in city court brought by a client, who claimed Grossman had malpriced his bill and failed to return.

After leaving the city Grossman went to Manchester, N. H., and Burlington attorneys located him there and attempted to settle with him for some Burlington creditors.

Courier Clerk Ray visited a certain attorney at the Chittenden county courts to get an idea of the next term of the supreme court. The only new case in that against Grossman.

WEDDING IN WINOOSKI.

Representative C. H. Stevens and Miss Vittore M. Packard Married.

A wedding of interest although quiet was that of Representative Charles H. Stevens and Miss Vittore M. Packard of this village which was celebrated at the home of the bride's father, Frank K. Packard, Sr., on Main street Tuesday evening. The ceremony was performed by the parishes which were tastefully decorated with holly and evergreens and in the presence of only the members of the immediate family. The Rev. Edward Hungerford was the officiating clergyman. Following the ceremony congratulations were extended and light refreshments served. Mr. and Mrs. Stevens left on the 16th train amid a shower of rice and small gifts.

The approach of Christmas finds turkeys scarce and high in price with a comparatively light demand for them. The birds did not drop below the high prices which prevailed at Thanksgiving time but local dealers remained optimistic and expected that the Christmas season would bring the supply increased and the price reduced. Such, however, is not the case. Native turkeys are selling for 28 and 30 cents per pound, with some Western birds in the market at 25 cents. There is an abundance of geese and ducks at 20 cents each. Chickens are selling for 18 and 20 cents. The price of other meats remains the same.

There have been but slight variations in the vegetable market. Common potatoe are 15 cents per bushel with sweet ones at 18 cents. Turnips are 15 cents per bushel with sweet ones at 18 cents.
